For people new to crocheting, this is a stitch you may already know how to do, but did not realize it by name.

For hat brims and sweater cuffs patterns may call for a rib stitching.

In some instructions, the rib stitch is written as crocheting in the back loop only and is not mentioned as rib stitch. When you are new to crocheting sometimes this is a little confusing.